Bank Indonesia cut its benchmark interest rate

At the Bank Indonesia Board of Governors (RDG) meeting on 17-18 July 2019, the decision was made to reduce the 7-day BI Repo Rate (BI7DRRR) by 25bps from 6.00% to 5.75%. The decision was taken in consideration of the forecast for low inflation and the need to push economic growth momentum. Going forward, Bank Indonesia views that there is still room for accommodative monetary policy in line with the low inflation forecast and the need to push economic growth.

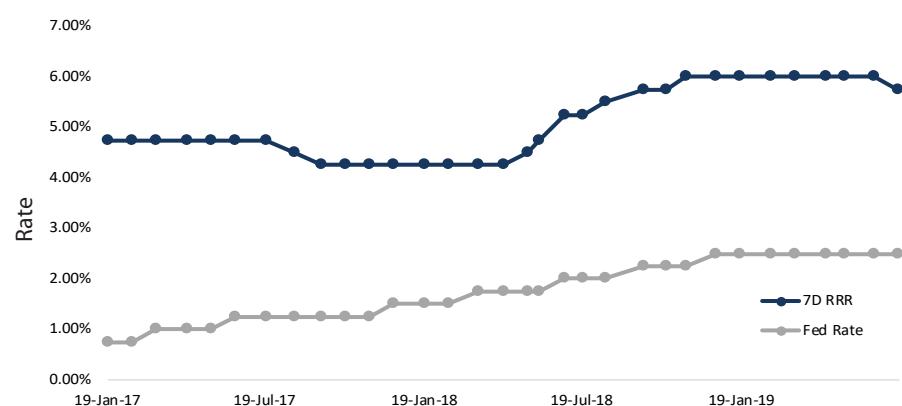

This decision was taken against a backdrop of persisting trade tensions which have slowed global economic growth, with Indonesia's economic growth in the second quarter of 2019 estimated to be about the same as in the previous quarter. Meanwhile, the performance of Indonesia's balance of payments in the second quarter was still maintained and a stronger rupiah exchange rate supported Indonesia's external stability. In addition, inflation in June 2019 was maintained at a low and stable level, along with financial stability and sufficient liquidity as well as improved credit risk.

Bank Indonesia memangkas suku bunga acuan

Rapat Dewan Gubernur (RDG) Bank Indonesia pada 17-18 Juli 2019 memutuskan untuk menurunkan BI 7-day Reverse Repo Rate (BI7DRRR) sebesar 25bps dari 6,00% menjadi 5,75%. Keputusan tersebut ditempuh disebabkan oleh tetap rendahnya prakiraan inflasi dan perlunya mendorong momentum pertumbuhan ekonomi. Ke depan, Bank Indonesia memandang masih terbuka ruang bagi kebijakan moneter yang akomodatif sejalan dengan rendahnya prakiraan inflasi dan perlunya mendorong momentum pertumbuhan ekonomi.

Beberapa hal yang menjadi pertimbangan dalam pengambilan kebijakan ini diantaranya adalah ketegangan hubungan dagang yang masih berlanjut sehingga memperlambat pertumbuhan ekonomi global, pertumbuhan ekonomi Indonesia triwulan II 2019 diperkirakan relatif sama dengan triwulan sebelumnya. Selain itu, kinerja neraca pembayaran Indonesia triwulan II yang masih tetap terjaga dan nilai tukar Rupiah yang menguat dapat mendukung stabilitas eksternal Indonesia. Di samping itu, inflasi Juni 2019 tetap terjaga di level yang rendah dan stabil, serta stabilitas keuangan yang tetap terjaga disertai dengan cukupnya ketersediaan likuiditas dan membaiknya risiko kredit.

Continuing the CDS downturn

The bullish trend in Indonesian bond yields was also driven by an increase in Indonesia's credit rating by S & P from BBB- to BBB at the end of May 2019. Compared to the end of May 2019, the level of risk as reflected in Indonesia's 5-year CDS fell 30bps from 115bps to 85bps. The decline in Indonesia's 5-year CDS is in line with the CDS average of countries that are ranked BBB.

Melanjutkan tren penurunan CDS

Tren bullish yield obligasi Indonesia ini juga didorong oleh peningkatan peringkat kredit Indonesia oleh S&P dari BBB- menjadi BBB pada akhir Mei 2019.
